ANOTHER SERVICE.—Word reached here on Wednesday morning that Henderson Snyder, a farmer living four miles south of town, had committed suicide by hanging. Dr. Welch was called, but when he arrived Mr. Snyder had been dead for some time and the sad scene closed. So far as we could learn he left no note or word of explanation, but his family had noticed that he was somewhat despondent for two or three days before his death. He took his life by fastening a rope to a rafter of his feed and stock barn, adjusted a noose with a ring in it to his neck, and then slid down some hay to his death. Henderson Snyder was a model man in all the relations of life, prosperous and apparently happy, and his death by his own hand is a great surprise to all his friends. He leaves a wife and family in good circumstances, who are prostrated with grief at the husband and father's untimely end.

Like a New Man As the Result of Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"For three winters past I have suffered with the grip, and it left me all out of fix. I had a pain in my left side and was troubled with my stomach for about six months. I had a tired feeling and I could not work, for the muscles of my leg would give out, and I would have to sit down and rest. Nothing did me any good. I read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla that I decided I would try it. I noticed after three doses that I was getting better. I have now taken three boxes, and I Feel like a New Man.

I get up at 4 o'clock, and can plow and work about the farm all day without getting very tired. I can truthfully say that Hood's Sarsaparilla brought me out, and I feel like a spring chicken. I have advised several of my friends to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and several have done so and say that it has done them good."

ATTENTION FARMERS AND LABORERS.

Having been appointed by the Chariton County Farmers' and Laborers' union as organizer and re-organizer at their meeting held in Keytesville Aug. the 7th, 1894. I hereby notify all ex-members of that order in Chariton county of that fact. The order is being revived all over the state and nation and the farmers and laborers are more thoroughly convinced than ever before of the importance of a united and concentrated effort on their part. Our next county union will be held, in Keytesville, at the court house, on the first Tuesday in Jan., 1895. Hence the necessity of immediate action in the re-organization of all sub-unions in the county in order that all be ready to elect delegates to the January meeting which will be an interesting session. Brethren, get together, talk the matter over and notify me when and where to meet you for re-organizing.

Fraternally yours,
J. F. JOHNSON,
County Organizer, Eccles, Mo.
